

Nicole enjoyed finger painting and experimenting with mixing colours today. She observed how mixing two different paint colours together created a new colour. "I made a butterfly" Nicole said as she mixed all colours to create "rainbow wings". She also made her own "mini monsters".

Linking To The Outcomes

- Children have a strong sense of identity.
- Children are connected with and contribute to their world.
- Children have a strong sense of wellbeing.
- Children are confident and involved learners.
- Children are effective communicators.