Over the past couple of days in the group have been identifying different colours within the group have been identifying different colours within the environment so I wanted to extend on this experience by introducing a colour mixing experiment to each child.

While outside today I set up the painting with 3 pain pots of yellow, blue and red. As i was setting up Kelly stood watching me. "I like painting, let's go". Kelly you were so eager to pain and you couldn't wait to get started!

What It Means

Kelly was very proud of the painting she created using the different colours. We have it on the fridge!

What's Next

Marble painting - enable Kelly to continue experimenting with mixing colours together.
