

LEARNING JOURNEY SUMMARY

CHILD'S NAME: Ava Woodstock
DOB: 12-Mar-21
DATE COMPLETED: 12-Jun-25
EDUCATOR: Lorina

CHILD'S STRENGTHS & INTERESTS

Ava is a confident and curious learner who enjoys sensory play, storytelling, and outdoor exploration. She shows a strong interest in animals and often initiates imaginative play scenarios involving pets and wildlife.

OUTCOMES

Outcome 1:
Identity

EVIDENCE

Demonstrates increasing independence and confidence in group settings.

EXAMPLES

"I can do it myself!" – Ava while putting on her shoes.

Outcome 2:
Community

Participates in group rituals and shows care for others.

Ava helped a peer find their hat and said, "You can wear mine if you want."

Outcome 3:
Wellbeing

Manages transitions with support and expresses emotions using words.

During rest time, Ava said, "I feel tired, I want my blanket."

Outcome 4:
Learning

Engages in problem-solving and sustained play.

Ava built a tall tower with blocks and adjusted it when it wobbled.

Outcome 5:
Communication

Engages in problem-solving and sustained play.

Ava narrated a story about a lost puppy and drew a picture to match.

EDUCATOR REFLECTIONS

Ava has shown significant growth in her ability to express herself and collaborate with peers. Her imaginative play and storytelling skills have flourished, and she demonstrates resilience when faced with challenges. She is developing a strong sense of identity and belonging within the group.

NEXT STEPS

- Introduce more complex storytelling prompts to extend narrative skills.
- Provide opportunities for Ava to lead group activities to build confidence.
- Explore animal-themed inquiry projects to deepen her interests.

FAMILY INPUT

"We've noticed Ava telling longer stories at home and pretending to be a teacher with her toys. She loves animals and often pretends to care for them. We're so proud of how confident she's become!"

