

Echoes Of Me

Child: Zayden Josiah - 2 years old

Date: 29-Oct-25

Educator: Lorina

What I Said Or Showed

"I make big tower!" – I stacked five blocks, clapped, then looked at Mila and said, "You try!"

What This Moment Reveals

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☒ Interest | ☐ Challenge |
| ☐ Emotion | ☐ Curiosity |
| ☐ Need | ☒ Relationship |
| ☒ Strength | ☒ Identity |

This moment shows Zayden's pride in his achievement, his growing confidence, and his desire to include peers in play. It reflects emerging leadership and social connection. It reflects emerging leadership and social connection.

What Comes Next

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☒ Planned experience | ☐ Educator reflection |
| ☐ Environmental change | ☒ Peer connection |
| ☐ Emotional support | ☐ Safety action |
| ☐ Family communication | ☒ Documentation update |

We added a block-building challenge to tomorrow's plan with photos of Zayden's tower as inspiration. We will also create a "Tower Gallery" wall to celebrate children's creations and encourage peer modelling.

Notes/Reflection

Today I noticed Zayden using language to invite play and model persistence. Mila joined in after watching him, showing trust and interest. This could be a great moment to document for our learning story wall.