

Snapshots of Me

Name: Peter Stephens

Date: Jul 9, 2013

Briefly Describe The Experience:

Peter sat down at the table which had the train set setup. He took a few of the wooden trains out of the basket and connected them together, using the magnet at the back of each. Peter took the train set he had made and put it on top of the track. He pushed the train around the track. Next he took the train set and put it on the floor. He continued pushing the train while playing on the floor. He smiled and laughed.
