

Our NQS Rating

Service Name: Aussie Childcare Net

Rating Received On: August 10, 2015

The National Quality Standard (NQS) is a key aspect of the National Quality Framework (NQF) and sets a national benchmark for early childhood education and care services in Australia. Every service will be assessed to make sure it meets the quality standards. In addition to quality assessment, our service must meet regulations that protect children's welfare.

Our service has been assessed on 18 Standards and 58 Elements within the 7 Quality Areas. The ratings that we have received at this service are:

Quality Area	Current Rating Level
1. Educational program and practice	Excellent
2. Children's health and safety	Meeting
3. Physical environment	Meeting
4. Staffing arrangements	Working Towards
5. Relationships with children	Exceeding
6. Collaborative partnerships with families & communities	Excellent
7. Leadership and service management	Exceeding
Our Services Overall Rating	Exceeding

Rating Levels Explained

Significant Improvement Required

When a service fails to meet requirements in a way that poses an unacceptable risk to health, wellbeing or safety of children.

Working Towards

Mix of quality areas rated meeting and exceeding and a least one quality area rated towards Working Towards OR all seven quality areas rated Working Towards.

Meeting

Mix of quality areas rated Meeting and Exceeding OR all seven quality areas rated Meeting.

Exceeding

Four or more quality areas rated Exceeding, including two of the key areas OR all seven quality areas rated Exceeding.

Excellent

The highest possible rating and can only be awarded ACECQA.