

International Day Of Yoga

-21st June-

Yoga is a form of practice which includes breath control and specific body postures (asanas). It benefits both adults and children. When children practice yoga it increases their confidence, builds concentration and strengthens growing bodies. It teaches children to be calm, while gaining awareness of the bodies, self control and discipline. Yoga teaches how the body and mind are inter connected and how we should be aware of our selves.