

Snapshots Of My Year

Child's Name: Scout Morris

Date: October 22, 2018

Lead Educator: Ariana

It has been an absolute pleasure having Scout in our room this year. She has been a bubble of energy and a ray of sunshine to say the least. We have had many good times and memories I will keep with me for a long time. I will miss Scouts smile and the sparkle in her eyes when she talks about something that she is so interested in - I hope she continues the love she has for animals and that in her future she continues to pursue this and become an "animal warrior".

EYLF Outcome 1

Scout cooperates and works collaborative with others. She enjoys small and large group experiences and respects the rights of others.

Scout participates and joins in dramatic play experiences and likes to lead by example introducing characters and ideas.

EYLF Outcome 2

Scout actively seeks the involvement peers. She is confident to express her personal opinion on matters and this is usually during group time discussions. She understands the different ways of contributing through play and projects.

EYLF Outcome 3

Scout is happy and positive. She shares humour with others and enjoys making others laugh. She is very active and participates in physical play. Uses the equipment and materials with safety and independence and understands importance of health,

EYLF Outcome 4

Scout is an enthusiastic learner. She wants to try something new or get involved in different projects. Scout is very imaginative and expresses her creativity through play and initiates and contributes to play experiences emerging from her own ideas.

EYLF Outcome 5

Scout is confident and clear to understand when using verbal communication. She engages in small and large group experiences and shows she is actively listening to what is being said. Scout enjoys songs and chants jingles and rhymes and listens to stories attentively.
