

Summative Assessment

Children Have A Strong Sense Of Identity

Scout cooperates and works collaborative with others. Scout participates and joins in dramatic play experiences and likes to lead by example introducing characters and ideas.

Date: 13 April 2020

Children Are Confident and Involved Learners

Scout is an enthusiastic learner. She wants to try something new or get involved in different projects. Scout is very imaginative and expresses her creativity through play.

What Have I Learned

Children Are Connected With & Contribute To Their World

Scout actively seeks the involvement peers. She is confident to express her personal opinion on matters and this is usually during group time discussions.

Children Have A Strong Sense Of Wellbeing

Scout is happy and positive. She shares humour with others and enjoys making others laugh. She is very active and participates in physical play.

Children Are Effective Communicators

Scout is confident when using verbal communication. She engages in small and large group experiences and is actively listening to what is being said.

Future Goals

- Express an opinion in matters that affect them. (2.1)
- Contribute to fair decision making. (2.1)
- Begin to understand and evaluate way in which texts construct identities and create stereotypes. (2.3)

From The Educator

Scout has progressed well to each of the Learning Outcomes and has achieved a wide range of goals through the different types of experiences she engages with. We hope she continues her love of learning while actively participating in group tasks.