

Spotlight On You

Date: 6/7/21

Observer: Emily Dudson

Age: 4 years

Hannah has been manipulating playdough over the past couple of days and has started creating objects and figures with the playdough.

Linking To The Outcomes

4.3 Children transfer and adapt what they have learned from one context to another.

5.4 Children begin to understand how symbols and pattern systems work.

Future Planning

Follow Up: Clay Sculptures

Date Of Follow Up: 7/7/21

Evaluation: For craft, the children were encouraged to do Clay Sculptures. Hannah thoroughly enjoyed this as she spend over half an hour creating sculptures and figurines with clay. We will continue adding mediums for Hannah to express her creativity.
