

Celebrating National Science Week

From 16th August we celebrated Science Week at our service. Children were involved in a variety of science experiments including coke and mentos geysers, ocean layers, jellyfish in a bottle. We also looked at how vegetables are grown and the life cycles of plants and what plants need to grow. Very informative!

