

Standard 2 - Children Participate In Decisions Affecting Them And Are Taken Seriously

Why is this Standard important?

Empowering children by supporting them to take part in discussions about their safety is a reliable indicator that your organisation is child safe.

- Children's participation is embedded in organisational practice through feedback mechanisms.
 - Opportunities are created for children to be included in organisational decision-making.
- Children are given information on internal and external support services.
- Staff are provided with knowledge and skills to support children's participation.
- Staff encourage peer support for children.
 - Adults understand what safety means to children.

