

EYLF Outcome 1: Children Have A Strong Sense Of Identity In Action

- Children are willing to learn new things
- Role modelling of supportive social interactions
- Get down to the child's level and be supportive
 - Children try new things
 - Build self-help skills
 - Children express feelings
 - Create a sense of belonging
- Children keep trying and don't give up
- Children transition smoothly into care
- Children show an awareness of others
- Long blocks of play to allow children to explore
- Children show an understanding of how things in their world work
- Children take some control over their world through decision making and choice
- Children have a secure and trusting base to return to