

EYLF Outcome 5: Children Are Effective Communicators In Action

- Talk to children all day long
- Children engage in meaningful literacy experiences
 - Resources and activities are varied and engaging
 - Effort are praised
 - Children are encouraged to express their ideas
- Song and rhymes support children's language development
 - Children make meaningful signs and displays
 - Children are encouraged to write their name
- Children literacy brought into all aspects of play through creative decisions of the educators
- Children are able to use language to think through subjects and develop a greater understanding
- Letter are added to play based experiences to invite interest
 - Books are read with children, not to children
 - Educator's label items and tasks to extend vocabulary
 - Children are engages with, not quizzed, to challenge language skills