

What Are Feelings?

Feelings are the way we respond to things happening around or inside us. They help us understand ourselves and the world better. Everyone has feelings, happy, sad, angry, scared and they're all okay to have.