

Remembrance Day

11th November

Remembrance Day marks the end of the First World War, 11 November 1918.

World War 1 was known as the great war and began in August 1914. Australia declared their allegiance to Britain and joined the war.

Every year on the 11th hour of the 11th day on the 11th month we fall silent for 1 minute to remember those who served their country during the war.