

QA5 - Relationships With Children

Quality Area 5 of the National Quality Standard focuses on educators developing responsive, warm, trusting and respectful relationships with children that promote their well-being, self-esteem, sense of security and belonging.

5.1 Respectful and equitable relationships are maintained with each child

5.2 Each child is supported to build and maintain sensitive and responsive relationships