

Christmas In Canada

Christmas in Canada is a blend of European and Native traditions. For example, in Quebec people display creches, or nativity scenes, in their homes just as the French do. The Inuit hold a Christmas festival known as "sinck tuck" during which time people exchange gifts, dance, and feast.