

The Third Eye Chakra

Light is a powerful force. When the energy of earth reaches your third eye, which resides in the center of your forehead, the light springs forth in immense power. You see things for their true nature. No longer do you see yourself differently than others, but you see yourself and others as the same. Open your mind. Open your consciousness. See that everything is connected.