

Minerals

- Calcium was provided from insects, eaten whole and from ground up moths
- Small-leaved rock fig contain very high amounts of calcium
- Salt was also collected from leaves of the river mangrove and available from the salt fats in desert regions

