

Carbohydrates

- Were found in: fruits, tubers, nuts, seeds and leaves
- Traditional bush tucker was generally low in sugar but for sweetness, the indigenous people found honey in tree and in the desert, sweetness came from the swollen abdomens of sugar ants
- Tree gums were dissolved in water and mixed with honey to make sweets for children

