

Stakeholders

You stakeholders are people who are invested in your service/organisation. These people are directly or indirectly impacted by the decisions that you make and therefore should be considered when making decisions. Stakeholders include children, families, educators, employees, community, management, regulatory authority, ACECQA and more that may be specific to your context.

