

Theory

Theory is the ideas of those who study different aspects of human nature, from a range of different aspects, and come up with ideas on how humans function or develop, based on their research. While there may be well known theorists such as Piaget or Vygotsky, there are also more modern theories that can shape your pedagogy and you should stay connected to current research.

