

Early Childhood Education And Care

Early childhood education and care refers to the holistic development of a child's social, emotional, cognitive and physical abilities in a way that meets each child's needs, to build a solid and broad foundation for life long learning and wellbeing.

