

Advocate

To advocate is to speak out to promote or support a cause. This can be done through your actions or by speaking out on causes you believe in. For example the way in which you behave at work is a way to advocate for the profession. You can also advocate for those who cannot advocate for themselves, such as the children in your care and their needs.

