

Play

Play is essential to children's learning and development. Play enables children to make decisions, learn, take risks and have fun.

