

Autonomy

Autonomy is having control over yourself and your actions. Children can demonstrate autonomy through deciding what experiences they would like to participate in, whether they are hungry, whether they are tired etc. There is still a responsibility of educators to assume duty of care, however it is important to respect the rights of the child when considering autonomy.

