

Context

Your context is your specific location and community, No two early childhood services should be identical as they have different stakeholders, different values and beliefs, a different culture. They are also located in different geographical areas, possibly only a few streets away can still change the resources and environment the service has access to in the community.

